DeepBloom Demo Examination

Course: General Studies
Duration: 2 hours Maximum score: 60

Answer all questions. Each question carries five points.

1. List the steps involved in titration.

2. Name the main characters in the story.

3. Explain in your own words what is meant by mercantilism.

4. Describe characteristics and importance of secondary market.

5. Calculate the market demand and market supply in table form.

6. Apply the rule of law to a new situation.

7. Compare two of the characters in this book.

8. Compare and contrast our school to other communities.

9. Evaluate the corrosion monitoring needs of a chemical processing plant.

10. Evaluate appropriate and inappropriate actions of characters.

11. Design a building according to given specifications.

12. Create a storyboard for a sequel to your book. Use the same characters.